NHA
National Hydropower Association

2025 BY THE NUMBERS

CONNECT

1 industry event -- Clean Currents -- the undisputed home for the North American water power community

1,843 registrants for Clean Currents, who connected, exchanged knowledge, and conducted business in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania

731 individuals attending NHA's Regional Meetings in Minneapolis, Minnesota; Sacramento, California; Fitchburg, Massachusetts; and Anchorage, Alaska

ADVOCATE

$4-9B estimated value to the industry for water power becoming a tax-preferred electricity resource by preserving federal tax incentives for re-powering existing facilities and building new pumped storage and hydropower

$220M federal appropriations for the U.S. Department of Energy's Hydropower and Hydrokinetic Office (H2O) – the highest level of funding ever

119 Congressional offices that 141 industry professionals from 33 states + DC met with on Advocacy Day, held during Water Power Week in Washington

32 U.S. Senators (13) and Representatives (19) that sponsored or co-sponsored the "Preserve and Enhance Hydropower" tax bill

34 Elected officials who publicly celebrated National Hydropower Day

INFORM

439 average number of individuals participating each month in NHA-organized member-only programs (up 19% over 2024)

5,024 average visitors each month to the POWERHOUSE section of hydro.org

21% growth in NHA's LinkedIn social media engagement

339k DC-area thought leaders reached via a targeted digital media persuasion campaign

IMPLEMENT

353 NHA Member Organizations (an all-time record)

12 average number of member-only programs offered each month (webinars; committee, council, and roundtable meetings; and other programs)

1+1 =3 result from the strategic alignment between NHA and the Hydropower Foundation to elevate water power as a premier career destination

200 Massachusetts Ave NW · Suite 320 · Washington, DC 20001 · 202.805.5057 · www.hydro.org